Re: T2 Short Return Filing

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Lake Matinenda Cottage Owners Association Inc. was incorporated February 17, 1992 and given an Ontario Corporation Number 962175.

Since the date of incorporation, the Association has inadvertently not filed a Corporation Income Tax Return. We now believe that we should have filed a return for each year since 1992. Please accept the enclosed T2 Short Return Corporation Income Tax Return as our first filing.

We are incorporated, but we have no real property or assets of significance except bank accounts that total $12,415, as of December 31, 2013. The bank accounts were generated from dues ($10/year) and various internal association activities such as sale of cook books, rummage sales, bake sales and member locator maps over many years by volunteers. Our association membership was actually formed in 1962 before it became incorporated in 1992 and is truly a membership of volunteers. Our purpose is to: encourage fellowship, conserve the lake's natural beauty and water quality, support water safety and cooperate with public agencies to improve lake facilities.

Accordingly, we ask for you to accept the enclosed T2 Short Form Corporation Income Tax Return and request to be exonerated and not penalized for not filing Corporation Income Tax Returns in previous years.

Please advise if the enclosed forms meet the requirements for filing. I believe it is not necessary to obtain a business number (BN) due to the nature of our association's activities that has no sales subject to taxation, no payroll and only small annual operating expenses supported by our nominal annual dues.

Thank you in advance for your acceptance, consideration and review.

Sincerely,

Herbert (Herb) V. Herriman
President
